One of the distinguishing features of the Peter and the Starcatcher cast is its relatively small size combined with a large scope of character portrayals. The production is known for requiring actors to play multiple roles, often switching characters with rapid costume changes and shifts in demeanor. This demands a high level of adaptability and skill from the performers, making the cast not only a group of actors but also versatile storytellers. When the play debuted on Broadway in 2012, the original cast included notable names such as Christian Borle, who portrayed Black Stache, the play's version of Captain Hook.
